Yorktown Prospective Chamber Member,

Best wishes to everyone for a Happy New Year! May 2022 bring us many blessings as we begin this new year. The Yorktown Chamber of Commerce strives to promote commerce in our community and also provide traditional activities for our families and our youth.

Your consideration of renewing your membership is greatly appreciated. We continue to exercise our social media presence to keep the community informed and create regional awareness. Our social media engagements continues to grow.

Your contact information is appreciated as is an email contact address to keep you informed of timely activities, news and promotions. A community calendar is kept updated and is accessible at www.yorktowntx.com. Your help in providing us with community events and activities so that they may be included is appreciated. Our email address is cc@yorktowntx.com for promotions or correspondence.

The Yorktown Chamber of Commerce social media platform is a great way to offer promotions, promote ribbon cuttings or milestone moments, employment opportunities and more. Current paid memberships have the opportunity to share your message across our platforms to a wider audience that is already engaged in what is going on in the community.

Sincerely,

Tammy Bitterly,

Yorktown Chamber of Commerce, Event Coordinator

Chamber Banquet

A great member mixer and opportunity to honor businesses who have reached a milestone anniversary, student of the year and distinguished citizens at Yorktown Community Hall.

Business of the Month

Businesses that are currently paid at a Business membership level are eligible to be selected, at random, for Business of the Month. Includes signage, social media and print recognition.

Easter Egg Hunt

Community Easter Egg Hunt in the city park is always 2 Saturdays before Easter in the morning. Ages 0-12.

Memorial Day

Dewitt County Veterans memorialize our veterans and honor them with a ceremony. A well received annual tradition.

Teacher Appreciation

The Chamber welcomes the teachers with a breakfast and goodies from the chamber and members before the new school year begins.

Wildcat Pride Support

Aug. & Sept. is the time to promote Wildcat Spirit supporting the Yorktown ISD youth programs. Show your spirit in Gold and Black.

Back to School Supply Drive

Donations in school supplies or monetary to purchase items to be distributed amongst the local schools.

Baskets, Bags & Boxes Bingo

A FUNdraising night with food, fun & games. Bingo, silent auction, table décor contest. Dates to be determined. Sponsorships available.

Yorktown Western Days

Yorktown's annual festival. Community support and engagement is encouraged and necessary for the success of this event that brings thousands to our community. Since 1958.

Western Days Decorating Contest

Businesses & Residents are encouraged to welcome Western Days visitors by decorating their windows, yards or store fronts. Western Days is the 3rd Weekend in Oct.

Trunk or Treat

Local businesses, organizations and individuals gather in the park and offer goodies to local "Trick or Treaters" from tables & tailgates. Always the evening of Halloween.

Christmas Lights

The Yorktown Chamber manages the "Majestic Lights" display in the Park during the Christmas Holiday Season. Contributions are accepted to increase and enhance current displays.

Canned Food Drive

The Yorktown Historical Museum creates a Christmas Tree Forest in the museum with the help of local businesses and organizations. Christmas Trees are voted on with canned goods to benefit the local YAMS project to help the local needy.

Majestic Lights

Street pole ornaments, Christmas park displays, lights on the creek bridge are courtesy of the Majestic Lights campaign. Donations are always welcome to offset expenses.

Christmas with Santa

1st Thursday in Dec. at the city park with Santa. Loaded with activities, local church choirs, local high school band, non-profit organizations and late shopping.

Santa for Seniors

2020 was the initiation year for providing gifts for the seniors. With the cooperation of the Yorktown and Cuero Nursing Homes 2 carloads of various recommended goodies were delivered to the homes residents. In 2021 the Senior Housing Authority residents benefitted, also.

Punch Card Promotion

Shopping local establishments gives shoppers the opportunity to register for Gift Cards courtesy of YCC and Yorktown Economic Development Corporation.

Entrepreneur Workshops

It is the intention to occasionally provide mini workshops.

Chamber Advantages

In addition to ribbon cuttings & hosting community events, as a member you are welcome to promote your business at the chamber or chamber functions our Yorktown Chamber of Commerce Facebook page, with 2000 followers and growing it will help get your promotion noticed.
