

65th Annual Yorktown Western Days October 20 - 22, 2023

Western Days is held in Yorktown's Downtown City Park.

Admission is FREE to this fun filled family festival.

Western Days includes music, a grand parade, cookoffs, quilt show, music, Mutton bustin', pig scramble, kids stick horse rodeo, music, corn hole, carnival, of course food and craft vendors, and more and more.

Western Days kicks off at 5 p.m. on Friday, October 20th and runs till midnight. Saturday, the 21st, begins with a grand parade at 10:30 and continues till 1 a.m. The 22nd, Sunday and final day, starts at noon and concludes at 6.

To inquire about becoming a VENDOR at this year's festival please send an email to vendors@yorktowntx.com

explaining your product and booth dimensions needed.

We limit the number of vendors selling similar items. Spaces are on a first pay basis. A space is not guaranteed until full payment is received.

Vendors must furnish their own equipment and items needed to operate.

12' x 12' Craft Vendor Space is $200

Craft Vendors must be Open and Operational during the following times:

20 th	Friday	4 p.m. 10 p.m.
21 st	Saturday	11 a.m. till 10 p.m.
22 nd	Sunday	11 a.m. till 5 p.m.

15' x 15' Food Vendor Space is $400

Food Vendors must be Open and Operational during the following times:

20 th	Friday	4 p.m. till midnight
21 st	Saturday	11 a.m. till 1 a.m.
22 nd	Sunday	11 a.m. till 6 p.m.

Yorktown's Western Days Association is a 501c3 organization. Western Days helps finance the Association's Wagon Wheel Charities which includes scholarships, Cowboy Claus (providing Christmas gifts to local children in need), supporting the FFA program, and more.